DEATHS.

—Mr. James Delaney, aged 71 years, died Thursday night at his home on the Clintonville pike of general debility.

Mr. Delaney was a native of Ireland and came to America when a lad thirteen years old. He lived the most of his life at Lower Blue Lick Springs, moving to Bourbon eighteen years ago. He was married to Miss Mary Elizabeth Conyers and besides his wife is survived by nine grown children, five sons and four daughters, all being at his bedside when he passed away.

The funeral services were conducted at the Catholic church Saturday morning at nine o'clock by the Rev. Father Eugene DeBruyn. The interment in the Paris Catholic cemetery. The pall bearers were T. F. Brannon, John Toohy, John T. Doyle, John Connell, Ed Coughlin and James Burke.

—The funeral services of the late John A. Trimble were held, at the Christian Church in North Middletown Friday at 2 o'clock p. m., Elder J. W. Ligon paying just tribute to his memory.

Mr. Trimble was a son of Forgas and Eliza Trimble, both of whom came to Kentucky from Virginia in the early history of the county and settled on the Plum Lick pike, where they reared a large family of children, four of whom survive—Mrs. Sallie Collins, of North Middletown, W. G. Trimble, who is now convalescent in a Lexington hospital; R. L. Trimble, of Sayre, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Perlina Allen. Mr. Trimble's mother was a second cousin of George Washington and often told of incidents in the life of the Father of his Country.

Mr. Trimble married Miss Laura Harmon, whose parents resided on a neighboring farm. She died in 1903. Mr. Trimble was prominent as a farmer and business man and died at the advanced age of 75 years. He is survived by two sons, Albert S. Trimble, of North Middletown, and Kirby Trimble, of Oklahoma, and four daughters, Mrs. Lula Bunnell and Mrs. Ella Taylor of Scott county, Mrs. E. L. Harris, of Paris, and Mrs. Roger Burris, of Little Rock, this county.

Mr. Trimble was laid to rest in the family burial lot in the North Middletown cemetery. The pall bearers were L. D. Young, W. S. Jones, R. D. Weaver, G. L. Rice, J. W. Young, J. W. Prescott, Ed Rice and T. J. Judy.

MATRIMONIAL.

—Miss Pearl Ely and Mr. Joseph James will be united in the holy bonds of matrimony, at the home of the sister of the bride, Mrs. M. H. Highland, on Vine street, this evening at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Geo. W. Clarke will perform the ceremony. The to-be-bride is a popular clerk at Mr. C. S. Goldstein's dry goods store and a most excellent young lady. Mr. James is the genial and agreeable salesman with Mr. C. B. Mitchell, who has a host of friends who wish him a happy and successful future.

—The wedding of Miss Lula Rice and Mr. Jesse McChord, both of Ruddle Mills, which took place in Cynthia on Friday, Nov. 5, was kept a profound secret until announced by the happy couple on Wednesday last. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rice, and the groom a son of Mr. and Mrs. John McChord. They have gone to housekeeping at the home of the groom on the Ruddle Mills and Millersburg pike.

—Miss Mattie Moore and Mr. John Curd, of Harrodsburg, were united in marriage Wednesday at 3:30 o'clock p. m., at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. J. H. Williams, at Little Rock, this county. The bride, who is pretty and attractive, had for several days been the guest of the Rev. and Mrs. Williams and after the ceremony the happy couple drove to Paris, where they were tendered a reception at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Chas. Funk.

THEATRICAL.

"THE YANKEE DOODLE BOY."
—Tuneful, racy music, a wealth of new song hits, an intensely interesting story full of sunshine, laughter and love, are all bespoken for the "Yankee Doodle Boy," Powell & Cohan's musical play which will be the attraction at the Paris Grand next Thursday, February 3.

"Bud Hicks," nicknamed "The Yankee Doodle Boy" is the central figure. He is slangy but you love him from the moment he makes his first appearance, he is so typically American. Bud's "long suit" is making love and tries the effect of his "fatal beauty," as he expresses it, on every pretty girl he meets. Finally, however, he encounters his affinity in the form of Miss Truly Spencer, of Downer's Grove, Illinois, and its "all off" with Bud—the biter is bitten. He falls desperately in love, but Truly is a tease and keeps him guessing.

The song hits are all new this season, last season's tuneful music having all been discarded, as Messrs. Powell & Cohan are determined that "The Yankee Doodle Boy" shall continue to be "the best musical play touring the country."

Reserved seats may be had at Mitchell & Blakemore's this morning.

PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.Liar—Good, Bad and Indifferent.

We are all more or less acquainted with the harmless exaggerator who never heard anything new or saw anything superexcellent, says the Harrodsburg Herald. Tell him of any wonderful event or device, and he is able to go you at least three points better without any compunction of conscience. He's "an amusin' cuss." We say of him as the late Andy Vaughan once said of a friend of his: "There's no harm in old Steve." Then there is the vicious liar whose tongue is dipped in gall; whose heart is black with the venom of Hades, and who lies to injure. Cowardly as the yellowest cur, he seeks to avenge his fancied wrongs by false and cruel insinuations and innuendoes, manufactured to order, and intended to destroy business and character. He is a foul fiend who deserves the contempt and execration of the public. If the first be amusing and the latter contemptible, there is yet another who may be called the entertaining prevaricator. In his line he is a top-notch. He knows many stories, drawn from his personal experience, of which he is the victim and he tells them so charmingly, and embellishes them so ornately and plausibly as to enchant his auditors. No malice enters into his stories to deform or pollute them and he is always a welcome guest in any company. He is an entertainer. But there is the fourth class, the plain, outright liar who never tells the truth about anything or on any occasion even though the truth would serve his purpose better than a lie. He is the spontaneous, fluent, supremely liar who never does any considerable harm because no one ever believes him without substantial corroboration. He is disbarred from membership in the Annanias clubs, not because of ineligibility, but because of the jealous prejudice of his less accomplished rivals. They cannot afford to receive into their membership a thirty-third degree graduate who makes them look like thirty cents before he has seen the interior of their club rooms, and whose arclight mendacity would reduce their own to pallid tallow dips. He also may have the charm of art in the delivery of his stories, but he is always the hero of them—never the victim. He will tell himself an impossible lie and believe it without the slightest consciousness of his own credulity, and be hurt to the death if his auditors do not gulp it down in the same confiding fashion. He may be, and oftentimes is, amusing and plausible, but, failing to confine himself to the sphere of probable fiction or an unremembered past, he lies about the things of today and yesterday and thus loses caste. Of course these do not exhaust the catalogue. Their name is legion.

Exaggeration in Speech.

Exaggeration in speech is condemned in an editorial printed in the Washington, D. C., Herald. It says: "The language we possess may not be the most euphonious, nor the most expressive, nor the least to learn, but none of these shortcomings can excuse the general tenor of the present day. We fail to give thought to the simplest rules of conduct when we are talking about commonplace affairs. When we are thirsty, we are usually 'dying of thirst,' when we meet a friend, we are 'overjoyed to see you,' when the rain is falling, it is generally a 'terrible rain,' we are 'crazy to see a show,' we are often 'tickled to death,' we tell one who brings a message relieving our anxiety that 'you have saved my life.' . . . Melodrama of the lurid type is only picturing what we daily enact figuratively. The English language is an excellent vehicle for the transfer of thought, and its normal, natural use should suffice. But it is time to call a halt, or we will (shall) have killed many of the best words by giving them a meaning far different from that in the dictionary."

Sharing Plunder.

Speaking at Omaha, former Governor Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, said something that deserves a place in every well regulated scrapbook. Governor Folk said:

"If it be said that the protective system is wrong, but as long as it is allowed we might as well get a share of the plunder for our own state, the answer is that sharing in the proceeds of robbery could as well be justified by claiming that since men will rob we might as well profit by this weakness of mankind. The real purpose of protection is to stifle competition, and to that extent help monopoly. The time has come to protect the people from monopoly instead of protecting monopoly from the people. It is claimed that under the protective system money is distributed by dripping down to the people from the overflowed pockets of the protective tariff barons; if that were true, the people would simply be getting back a part of that which was taken from them unjustly. Whenever a few men obtain more than they ought to have through privilege, there must be some who have less than they should have. To say that when everybody pays too much for everything everybody is benefitted is to state an absurdity. If the privilege of protection could be afforded to all alike, it would in the nature of things benefit no one. It is because it gives a few special privileges at the expense of the many that these few clamor so loudly for it, and it is for that reason the many should not submit to it."

President Taft's Trust Message.

In all lands and in all ages rules of conduct and laws have been enforced by the punishment of the offenders, says the National Monthly. Imprisonment, stocks, the whipping post are among the familiar forms of punishment, and in every case fear of imprisonment, degradation and shame have been the great deterrents to violation of law.

Perhaps President Taft can make all the trusts good by "bringing them into the zone of lawfulness" as he proposed in his recent message to Congress, but the proper enforcement of existing anti-trust laws by Federal and State authority appears to offer the better line of action. Judicial interpretations are clarifying the Sherman law and it would now seem to require but the plugging of those holes through which the "man higher up" escapes to perfect its operation. Once the men who profit by the criminal operations of their corporate institution find they must suffer personally for the criminal acts we will find them all in the "zone of lawfulness."

The President's effort to strengthen the Interstate Commerce Commission by the appointment of an interstate commerce court to overcome delay in making effective decisions of the court is so laudable a move and so clearly indicated necessity that the failure to take some such step at an earlier date in the history of interstate commerce investigation is almost inexplicable.

Got to Show Harmon.

Governor Harmon, of Ohio, intends that the people of his State shall know where to properly lay the blame for sixty-cent eggs and fifty-cent butter. The standpat element in Congress blame the hen and the cow but Governor Harmon doesn't intend to take their word for it.

The Strength of a Shark.

Given special advantages, such as that of holding the end of a stout rope at the other extremity of which is a hook fixed in a shark's mouth, man may, with the assistance of a number of his fellows, have the best of the shark. But alone and in the water the advantage is wholly and absolutely the other way, and the strongest swimmer and the bravest heart fall when the tyrant of the sea seeks to make his acquaintance. The shark is gifted with great strength, a savage temper, dogged perseverance and exceptional power of jaw. The lion and tiger may mangle, the crocodile may lacerate, the bulldog may hold fast—the shark alone of living creatures possesses the power of nipping off a human limb at a bite.

Got Her Wish.

A newly engaged couple were enjoying some blissful moments alone after dinner. They had broken the wish bone at table.
"Tell me what you wished," she asked shyly.
"Tell me what you wished," he returned.
"Well, I will if you will."
"I hate to do it. It might not come true."
"But maybe it would. Now, you promised, you know."
"Well, I wished you'd let me kiss you. Now, what did you wish?"
"Oh, I haven't told."
"But you promised."
"Well, I wished you'd get your wish."
—Ladies' Home Journal.

The Jury System.

The jury as it is found today is a relic of the ancient popular justice. In the city states of antiquity the entire male population passed upon the guilt or innocence of the offending party. The oldest Greek poet has left us a picture of what the primitive jury was. The court is sitting; the question of "Guilty" or "Not guilty" is put, and the old men of the community in turn give their opinion, the rank and file of the people standing about applauding the opinion that strikes them most, the applause determining the decision. Gradually the jury became narrowed down in numbers until it finally appears as we see it today.—New York American.

Penetration of Light.

Experiments show that light can be seen through a clean cut opening of not more than one forty-thousandth of an inch. This fact was determined by taking two thoroughly clean straight edges and placing a piece of paper between the surfaces at one end, the opposite end being allowed to come together. The straight edges being placed between the eye and a strong light in a dark room, a wedge of light was perceived from the ends between which the paper was placed and the opposite, which were brought together. The thickness of the paper being known, the distance apart of the two edges of the small end of the wedge of light was easily calculated.

Superstitions About Sneezing.

Zenophon, Prometheus, Themistocles and Cicero regarded a sneeze as a favorable omen. Among the Hindoos and Persians, however, sneezing and yawning were ascribed to demoniacal possession. The Hindoo snaps his thumb and finger and repeats the name of one of his gods. The Moslems believe that the devil may leap into a gaping mouth, and hence when he yawns he draws the back of his hand over his mouth and mutters this prayer: "I seek refuge with Allah from Satan, the accursed."

Where Science Fails.

Euclid was deep in mathematics. "My dear," announced his wife, "I want to give Mary Smith a wedding present that will look like it cost more than the one she sent me, but really be less, and I don't know what she paid for it. How much should I spend?"
Herewith he sought safety in flight.—New York Sun.

Throwing Rice.

Throwing rice at a wedding symbolizes not the expression of good luck, but it is a metaphorical flight of arrows shot at the bridegroom. In uncivilized ages most nations were accustomed to the forcible capture of a bride by her lover, and the attempts on the part of her male relatives to prevent her husband from carrying her away is typified by a volley of rice instead of more fatal missiles.

When Pins Were New.

A curious fact in the early history of pins is that when they were first sold in "open shop" there was such a great demand for them that a code was passed permitting their sale only on two days in the year—the 1st and 2d of January. Those days the court ladies and the city dames flocked to the depots to purchase them in such numbers that they were accounted festivals.

Eskimo Wrestling.

Next to gambling the Eskimo men like to wrestle. The usual way of doing this is a test rather of strength than skill. The wrestlers sit down on the floor or in any convenient place side by side and facing in opposite directions, say with right elbows touching. Then they lock arms, and each strives to straighten out the other's arm.

Female Diplomacy.

"My dear," he said, "I forgot to post that letter this morning."
"Oh, you dear!" she cried. "That was just what I wanted. Now I can blame you when that supercilious Saddle complains that I don't answer her notes."—Exchange.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

—Expert farmers are wanted by Uncle Sam to teach the Indians how to farm. He offers $1,200 a year, and must be graduates from agricultural colleges.

—John L. Helm & Son, Elizabethtown, Ky., sold to Sam Bell of Glendale 98 head of export cattle at 5 1/4 cents per pound. The cattle averaged 1,400 pounds.

—Believing that an entire herd of cattle at the Arkansas Hospital for the Insane was affected with tuberculosis, the State Board for Charitable Institutions has ordered seventy-six head to be slaughtered.

—Cattle traders and hog buyers will do well to go slow for awhile. The meat boycott all over the country is having its effect and prices will fall off still more. Right or wrong the agitation is bound to result in lower prices.

—The Saddle Horse meeting at Mexico, Mo., February 16, promises to be the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in that hot bed of saddle horse breeding, as the reports show. Not only will the immediate section pour out its every man, but the surrounding counties will contribute by hundreds.

—The combined receipts of live stock at six Western markets, including Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, St. Louis and Sioux City were 173,400 cattle, 351,700 hogs, and 169,900 sheep. The receipts at same markets on corresponding week of last year were 170,300 cattle, 519,700 hogs and 134,900 sheep.

—A big mass meeting of the wool growers of Nicholas county has been called by the Kentucky Wool Growers' Association to meet in Carlisle, February 14 for the purpose of organizing the wool pool in that county and designating members of the Board of Control.

—Mrs. Scott Durand startled the audience at the Kane county, Illinois, Farmers' Institute when she told them that her profits last year on 60 dairy cows were $12,000. Asked what she did with the money she said she spent it in keeping a free kindergarten in Chicago. She said that she kept her dairy barn as clean and wholesome as a kitchen.

Strong Words for Congressmen.

Words such as "graft, robber and treason," were hurled back and forth between members of the House committee on Postoffices and Postroads and magazine publishers at a hearing held Friday. The acrid exchanges grew out of editorials published by the latter protesting against increasing postal rates on magazines.

"Drys" Get a Setback.

"Dry" members of the House received their first defeat Friday. The test came when the Rev. G. C. Wagner, of Henry county, made a motion to adjourn, which was seconded by B. E. Niles of Henderson county. These two Representatives are the acknowledged leaders of the "dry" element in the House, and their object in seeking adjournment was to block the reporting of bills until Monday, when the Committee on Public Morals, of which the Rev. Mr. Wagner is Chairman, will be ready to report the Wagner county unit bill. The move is along the line of others indulged in by the "drys" seeking to block and make of secondary importance to the county unit measure all other measures. A vote on the Wagner motion resulted in defeat by 36 to 23.

While the "drys" were defeated, they did not lose much ground, for the reason that few bills were reported before the body was finally adjourned. The scramble among the members with pet measures to have reported at the earliest possible moment did not wait until they were in the shuffle incident to the passage of the legislative session. The county unit backers of the county unit measure are willing to go on in order to get their bills reported.

Public Sale

Of 35 Fresh, Young, Pure Bred Tennessee Jersey Cows, at Flanagan's Stable, Paris, Ky., Wednesday, February 2, 1910.

These cows have all come fresh in the last fifteen days except three. Nearly all the calves are heifers. For quantity and quality of milk they give, we have never offered any better than they are. We can safely say this lot of cows is the highest testing lot in butter fat and give more milk than any lot we have sold. Many of the cows closed the past year's record clearing from $100 to $125 clear of expense of feeding. We have sold in the past fifteen months about 1,500 cows in Central Kentucky, which is proof that the class of cows we select are certainly giving satisfaction. For udders, teats and gentleness they cannot be surpassed. Veterinary certificates furnished with each cow sold. The cows are now at Flanagan's stable, and we will take pleasure in showing them to any one who calls. Any purchaser or purchasers buying as many as five head at this sale will have them delivered to the adjoining county line free of cost. Sale will start promptly at 1 o'clock, and be held in barn if weather is bad. Call either phone at Flanagan's, East Tennessee 128, Home 514.

Mild Laxative for Baby Free

The child of today is the parent of the future, and whether it grows up healthy and strong, or puny and weak, depends upon the intelligence of its parents, for most children are born into the world healthy, but thousands become future weaklings between birth and the age of ten, when the parents are still in greatest control.
The prime cause of trouble is in the stomach. A baby that is digesting its food seldom cries and always looks cheerful; the little child whose stomach is good rumps and plays and never whines; the growing child learns well at school and is eager for fun if its head is clear and its stomach light, and that means if it has no constipation.

The best and safest way to cure any irregularity of the stomach and bowels in children is by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a liquid laxative wonderful in its effect as Mrs. John W.
Dunham, Apple Creek, O., Mrs. H. L.
Cullam, Plainville, Ind., and numerous others can testify who give it to their children with extraordinary results.
A bottle only costs 50 cents or $1 according to the size you want, and even one 50-cent bottle will do a wonderful amount of good in a family. It can be given to any member of the family in constipation, sour stomach, indigestion, torpid liver, dyspepsia, heartburn, sick headache and similar digestive troubles.
It never gripes or strangles like pills, tablets, salts and powders, which should not be given to children, women or old folks.

If you have a child or other member of the family who needs, but has never used this grand laxative tonic, send your name and address to the doctor and a free trial bottle will be sent to your home. In this way you can find out what it will do without personal expense.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service.
The address is Dr. W. B.
Caldwell, 500 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

directing the carriers to stop whiling

A Change Coming.

The Cincinnati Democrat says the trusts contend that they must charge extortionate prices for their product because the farmers charge such high prices for their food stuffs. The farmers contend they must get high prices for their stuff because the trust charge such extortionate prices for theirs.
Between the two the man who works on a salary is being ground to a pulp and there is nothing at all coming to him as who is called "the laboring man." Some day there will be a revolution.

Candlemas Day.

Today, February 2, is the Feast of the Purification, commonly called Candlemas Day, because on that day the candles used in Catholic churches in the masses throughout the year are blessed. The candles used in the Mass must be of pure bees wax which is symbolical of the pure manhood and body of the Divine Saviour. The brilliant flame points to His divinity, the taper His human nature and the wax itself denotes His virgin person.
Hence the church is very particular in her requirements concerning the candles used for the sacrifice of the Mass, and not merely for illumination. The Feast always occurs on February 2, forty days after Christmas and is of very ancient observance.

Mrs. Youtsey Divorced

A decree granting Mrs. Henry Youtsey an absolute divorce from her husband, serving a life sentence in the penitentiary for complicity in the murder of William Goebel, was entered in the Circuit Court at Frankfort Friday.
Mrs. Youtsey is restored to her maiden name, Sarah C. French. Mrs.
Youtsey stuck to Youtsey for years after he was charged with complicity in the plot to kill William Goebel and she worked hard to get a parole for him. After she found that he could not get a parole and probably spent his last days in the penitentiary, she brought suit for divorce. The suit was brought in Winchester first and the court held it did not have jurisdiction, so Mrs. Youtsey filed the suit in Franklin county.

Jack Chinn Gets Hot.

At Frankfort, Friday, after the Governor's supplementary message was read in the House, Col. Jack Chinn, Representative from Mercer county, introduced a resolution denouncing what he termed the "barbarous" conditions relative to convict labor in the penitentiaries under State contracts. He asked for the appointment of a committee of five members to investigate these conditions.
Representatives J. W. Perry, J. W.
Holland and S. M. Russell moved to refer to the Committee on State Prisons and Houses of Reform, which carried by a vote of 44 to 29.
Representative Chinn made an impassioned speech and showed the bitter feeling that animated him. He said another resolution to investigate the prisons had "sneaked" through during his absence from the House. He said a big lobby was there to defeat a proper investigation of conditions at the prisons. He attacked the members of the Investigating Committee heretofore appointed. His remarks created a sensation.

The State Bond Issue.

It is said the Democratic leaders have agreed to a bond issue of half a million dollars to relieve the present stress of the State's finances and a bill to that effect will be passed at once.
Gov. Willson favors the bond issue, and said to the Democrats with whom he talked that if the State is relieved of the present debt that is being carried there will be money enough from now on to meet the indebtedness as it comes and pay the warrants as they are presented. The State has been refusing to pay warrants for some time on account of lack of funds in the treasury, but the half million of dollars to be secured by the bond issue will wipe out all debt.

"Aunt Mary" Felix Dead.

"Aunt Mary" Felix an ex-slave, the oldest person in Woodford county, who was believed to be 111 years old, died at her home near Mortonsville of paralysis. She was said to have been born in 1799 in Culpepper county, Va., and was brought to Kentucky by her owner, Benjamin Wickerham when she was eight years of age. She remembered passing through Lexington when it was a small hamlet of log buildings, surrounded by a wilderness.

Farmers Hit at the People.

Three hundred farmers of Vernon county, Mo., at a meeting in a country schoolhouse near Nevada, Mo., Friday adopted a resolution agreeing not to sell any cattle, hogs, poultry eggs or butter for sixty days, beginning February 1. Their action is as a protest against the statements of the large packing house interests that the farmer and stockman are responsible for the high prices of foodstuffs. A letter will be sent to all the farmers' associations in the United States, requesting them to withhold their products from market.

Frankfort Reformatory.

Senator C. M. Thomas, of the Prison Committee, reported favorably the bill changing the State prison at Frankfort into a reformatory, and giving a portion of earnings of convicts to his family. He secured immediate consideration for it, and the bill passed in Senate by vote of 34 to 1.

Gov. Willson's Second Message.

In a second message transmitted to both branches of the Legislature Friday, Governor Willson takes up and discusses the proposed amendment to the Constitution to secure a more modern and equitable system of taxation, management of the State charitable institutions by the bi-partisan Board of Control, and additional appropriations for the beautifying of the new Capitol and grounds. He strongly recommends a more uniform and just taxing law, incorporating the report of the State Tax Commission, the continuance of the present bi-partisan Board of Control in charge of the insane asylums and institutions for the feeble minded, the erection of an executive mansion in keeping with the new Capitol, and the sale of the old Statehouse property.

He cautions the Legislature that it will be useless to make new appropriations unless the money is provided to pay them. The message concludes with the statement that later in the session the Governor will send in another message on the needs and conditions of schools, penitentiaries, militia, good roads, pollution of streams and the income tax amendment to the Federal Constitution.

Strong Healthy Women

If a woman is strong and healthy in a womanly way, motherhood means to her but little suffering. The trouble lies in the fact that the many women suffer from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism and are unfitted for motherhood. This can be remedied.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Cures the weaknesses and disorders of women.
It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in motherhood, making them healthy, strong, vigorous, virile and elastic.

"Favorite Prescription" banishes the indispositions of the period of expectancy and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. It quickens and vitalizes the feminine organs, and insures a healthy and robust baby. Thousands of women have testified to its marvelous merits.

It Makes Weak Women Strong. It Makes Sick Women Well.
Honest druggists do not offer substitutes, and urge them upon you as "just as good." Accept no secret nostrum in place of this non-secret remedy. It contains not a drop of alcohol and not a grain of habit-forming or injurious drugs. Is a pure glyceric extract of healing, native American roots.

Lexington Police "Strung."

The newspaper men and police of Lexington were given the worst "stringing" they ever got in their live Saturday night late, when a drunken man or crowd of drunken men, or some college boys out on a lark, entered the McClelland building in Lexington and broke the glass in the doors of President Lebus and the Burley Tobacco Society on the fifth floor of the structure.

The affair happened at a late hour, leaving no time either to the newspaper men or the police for investigation or verification. The newspaper men either had to use the story as given them or leave it cut entirely and if there is anything a newspaper man hates worse than being "strung" it is being "scooped"--that is, letting the other fellow get the story which he fails to get.

Held to Grand Jury.

The examining trial of Staten Fetlock, colored, on charge of house-breaking, was held before Squire Fretwell yesterday afternoon. He was held to the March grand jury under $300 bond. Fetlock broke into the house of Minnie DeShea, colored, of Clayville, and carried away dresses, bed clothing and, in fact, a large bundle of all kinds of wearing apparel. He took the clothing to Millersburg and left it with a colored woman named Sophia Penn. Fetlock was arrested at Jacksonton by Policeman Fred Lick, and is now with Jailer Joe Farris, where he will remain until the March term of Circuit Court, being unable to give bail.

Leslie Combs Reappointed.

A Washington special to yesterday evening Lexington Leader said: "On the recommendation of Secretary Knox, President Taft has decided to reappoint Leslie Combs of Kentucky as minister to Peru. Senator Bradley tried to secure the appointment to that place of H. Clay Howard, another Republican, but Secretary Knox decided that Combs' retention in office would be in the interest of the general department of the diplomatic service which he has at heart."
